ROYAL YACHTING ASSOCIATION

2 day RYA Essential Navigation and Seamanship course

No previous navigational or cruising experience is required for this enjoyable course which is equal relevant for both sail and power.

The syllabus introduces you to charts and chartwork with hands-on practice, navigation, buoyage, anchoring and 'rules of the road' at sea

We'll talk about safety matters, including pre-departure engine checks, tidal awareness and look at weather forecasts.

We will compare visual and electronic means of navigation when planning and undertaking a passage.

Your RYA course pack will have the RYA charts, a navigation plotter and a pair of dividers plus a book of practical exercises and also a course handbook. You will need pen and paper, plus a pencil, pencil sharpener and rubber for your practical exercises.

At the end of the weekend, you should have a good basic understanding of key principles of safety at sea.
